Dear Mr. Franza:

I would like to acknowledge your recent inquiry to the Executive Clemency Bureau regarding the status of your request for executive clemency in the form of a pardon.

Please be advised that your application remains under review with Governor Andrew Cuomo's office. Pursuant to the Guidelines for Review of Executive Clemency Applications, as published by the Governor's Office of the State of New York, applications will be considered, to the extent possible, in the order received. Please know that there are many applications and yours, as well as all others, are receiving the careful attention and consideration they merit and deserve.

You will be notified once a determination is made regarding your application.

Sincerely,

Dear Dominic Franza:

I would like to acknowledge your recent correspondence to the Executive Clemency Bureau regarding the status of your request for executive clemency in the form of a pardon.

This is to confirm that your clemency case remains pending at this time. Please know that executive clemency is a matter within the sole discretion of the Governor and as such, I am unable to provide an estimated timeframe of when a decision will be reached. However, once a final determination has been made, you will be notified directly.

As part of the review process, your recent letter and comments will be considered and included with your clemency petition.

Sincerely,
